

2009 RISK & PROFIT TRADE SHOW REGISTRATION

ECONOMICS: Macro, Micro, Maddening

August 20-21, 2009

K-State Alumni Center
Manhattan, KS

The Department of Agricultural Economics at Kansas State University is again hosting the two-day Risk and Profit Conference in Manhattan, Kansas. This conference provides an opportunity to interact with 150 producers, ag lenders and agribusiness professionals as well as K-State Agricultural Economics faculty.

One feature of the conference is a trade show for agribusinesses, lenders, consultants, and others. The trade show will be open to participants during the entire conference. The cost for exhibitors is $350 for a 6' table (includes one registration) or $625 for a booth (includes two registrations).

After lunch on Thursday, Dr. Allen Featherstone, Professor in Agricultural Economics at K-State, will discuss "Impacts of the Financial Market Crisis on the Agriculture Sector". On Thursday evening, Eric Atkinson will host "A Conversation with a Top Kansas Producer" with Lon Frahm, a 2009 Top Producer award winner. Friday noon will feature the new K-State President, Dr. Kirk Schulz, speaking on "The Future of Kansas State University in Addressing the Land Grant Mission".

Friday morning's general session will feature James Mintert who will share his Livestock Outlook, and Mike Woolverton will offer his Grain Outlook. Breakout sessions with numerous contemporary and relevant topics will take place on Thursday afternoon, Friday morning and Friday afternoon. Attendees may choose up to eight of these sessions. The conference concludes late Friday afternoon.
