This form can provide the owner and operator with a guide for developing an agreement to fit their individual situation. This form is not intended to be a legal document nor take the place of legal advice pertaining to contractual relationships between the two parties. Because of the possibility that a lease agreement may be legally considered a partnership under certain conditions, seeking proper legal advice is recommended when developing such an agreement.

This lease entered into this _____ day of _____, 20____, between

_____, owner of _____

Address

_____, spouse of _____

Address

hereafter known as “the owner”, and

_____, operator of _____

1. Not to obligate the other party. Neither party shall pledge the credit of the other party for any purpose whatsoever without the consent of the other party. Neither party shall be responsible for debts or liabilities incurred or for damages caused by the other party.

2. Capital improvements. The operator shall be reimbursed for the costs of any new permanent structures and improvements paid for or constructed by the operator as follows (check option which applies):

_____(1) The operator will be reimbursed by the owner when the improvement is completed.

_____(2) The operator will be compensated by the share of the undepreciated amount of the operator's contribution when the lease is terminated based on the value of the operator's contribution and depreciation rate shown in the following table.

Rates for labor, power, and machinery contributed by the operator for the construction of permanent improvements shall be agreed upon before repairs are made or construction is started.

3. Environmental issues. The operator shall conduct all operations on the property in a manner consistent with all applicable local, state, and federal environmental codes, regulations, and statutes and shall bear sole responsibility for any violations thereof. The operator shall be solely responsible for securing any permits or approvals necessary for their activities on the property. In the event of any legally-prohibited release of materials to the environment, the operator will indemnify the owner for any costs of environmental cleanup and restoration as well as any penalties, fines, judgments or other amounts incurred by the owner as a result of such release.
