

G. A. (ART) BARNABY, JR.
VITA

Dr. Art Barnaby was raised on a diversified farm, located in Elk County, Kansas. Art received his Ph.D. in Agricultural Economics from Texas A&M University. Art joined the Kansas State University Ag. Economics faculty in 1979 and recently retired with the rank of professor. Art continues to conduct national and international education programs on market risk, USDA commodity programs, crop insurance and public policy. He has authored several research projects on crop insurance issues and their impacts on farmers. His research work with the private sector was the basis for the first revenue insurance contract. He has won several National awards including the National Association of Public & LG Universities Excellence in Extension Award; that included a $5,000 honorarium. Art was named on the Top Producer Editors' list of "Brave Thinkers and 1 of "7 Economists, Bankers Who Challenged the Status Quo". In "retirement", Art enjoys managing price & yield risk for his small farm. While missing his dear wife, Nancy, Art enjoys time with his 5 granddaughters. Art is the owner of 4B Agricultural Consultants, LLC, and he continues to provide educational speeches-seminars and other services.