

2019 RISK & PROFIT CONFERENCE & TRADE SHOW

August 22-23, 2019
K-State Alumni Center
Manhattan, KS

Policy Perplexity: Farm Bill, Trade, and Profitability

The Department of Agricultural Economics at Kansas State University is again hosting the two-day Risk and Profit Conference in Manhattan, Kansas, providing an opportunity to interact with more than 150 producers, ag lenders, agribusiness professionals and K-State Ag Economics faculty.

The conference features a trade show for agribusinesses, lenders, consultants, and others which will be open to participants during the entire conference. The cost for exhibitors is $450 for a 6' table (includes one registration) or $675 for a booth (includes two registrations).

The conference will begin with lunch at 11:30, then the keynote speaker, Sara Wyant, President of Agri-Pulse, speaking from 12:15-1:30, on ag policy, followed by breakout sessions in the afternoon and cash bar and social prior to dinner in the evening. This provides an excellent opportunity for participants to check out exhibits. Thursday evening's general session which features Eric Atkinson hosting "A Conversation with a Kansas Producer", with Phil and Sharron Knox, from Brewster, KS.

Friday morning's general session features the Grain Market Outlook, by Dr. Dan O'Brien. More breakout sessions follow this, then lunch and the conference closes with the Livestock Market Outlook, by Dr. Glynn Tonsor. Breakout sessions with numerous contemporary and relevant topics will take place on Thursday afternoon and Friday morning. Plan now to attend!
